

Kenilworth at Work!

June 2016

From the Pastor's Study:

"The Confession of Belhar"

In 2008 I attended the Presbyterian Church (USA) General Assembly (GA) in San Jose, CA. I was enrolled in a class taught by faculty from San Francisco Theological Seminary, including former Stated Clerk Jack Rodgers. My assignments included tracking the work of the committee looking at the confessions of our church. Our Book of Confessions is volume 1 of our church constitution; the other is the Book of Order. Eleven creeds, confessions, catechisms, and statements of faith make up our Book of Confessions. Our confessions describe "What we believe, who we are, and what we intend to do."

The 2008 GA voted to commend a new confession, The Confession of Belhar, to congregations and presbyteries for study. The Belhar originated in South Africa as a response to complicity of the church in state sanctioned apartheid. The 2010 General Assembly approved inclusion of the Belhar, but it failed to receive the needed approval of 2/3rds of the presbyteries in the US. The 2014 GA in Detroit again approved it, and this time it was approved by 85% of the presbyteries. It comes now to the GA in Portland, where final approval is likely.

This will be the first of our confessions that originated in the global south. It is very relevant to our current national conversation on race relations. Portland will have a special place in our Book of Confessions; the Confession of 1967 also received its final approval at a GA held here about 50 years ago. This historic event in the life of our church provides us a great opportunity to examine our Book of Confessions. Twelve documents over twelve months? Maybe. Here's a teaser for next month: Which came first, The Apostle's Creed or the Nicene Creed?

Peace, Pastor David

Barb's Note-able News

The choir sang for the last time on May 22 for the 2015-2016 season. The members have been faithful and grown immensely as singers and musical ministers of the Word. I thank them for their faithfulness.

The choir will have one more practice to do an anthem on June 19, the Sunday guests from GA will be here. We look forward to special music from soloists, small ensembles, and instrumentalists throughout the summer.

April 27-29, I attended the Sacred Music Symposium – A National Gathering of Church Musicians – in Indianapolis. I experienced Hoosier Hospitality from members of the church who volunteered as registrars, serving us meals, and being there to guide us and serve us in many ways. The final concert, open to the public and attended by Rick, my brother and sister-in-law, was very moving.

Musically yours, Barb Votrobeck

PS: There will be a choir practice following the PW Salad Supper on Monday, June 13, at 8 pm

Volunteer Opportunities for GA

The website is ready to sign up to volunteer. Just go to www.gaportland.com and click on the volunteer link on the right. Volunteers will be able to attend any of the general sessions and worship services at GA without paying the $95 registration fee. There is a link to the GA volunteer website from the KPC website for your convenience.

One specific volunteer opportunity is meeting those who will worship with us on Sunday, June 19. GA attendees who register to worship at Kenilworth will be transported by tour bus to the church. COLA (the Committee on Local Arrangements) is asking our congregation to provide one or two welcome volunteers to be at the Convention Center Sunday morning, June 19, to help folks get to the right bus for the trip to our church for worship. These folks will get the volunteer consideration of a full pass to enter General Assembly as an observer (a $95 value); however, there are no parking or transit allowances. Volunteers are encouraged to find their own best way to the Convention Center. If you would like to do this job, contact Rebecca Jewel. She will send your information to the Sunday Worship Coordinator.

Kenilworth
Community Preschool

The Preschool summer program is held on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9am through 1pm, beginning June 9. It continues through July 9th, then takes a break during the Music and Art Camp (July 11-15). It resumes Tuesday, July 21, and concludes on August 13. The program is open to recent alums, current and incoming students of the preschool.

Becoming an Earth Care Congregation

The Session has approved our becoming a Certified Earth Care Congregation. For approval, we need to earn at least 25 points in each of four categories: Worship, Education, Facilities, and Outreach. Here is the Worship portion of the application, with an estimate of points we have earned in the past year. We do well in this category, yet there are things we could do better. Next month: Education

Worshipping with the Commissioners at GA

Rather than offering one Sunday worship service at the convention center, the GA will disperse to many congregations in Portland to share worship with us. The welcoming congregations will also provide a meal following the worship service. We will have about 20 visitors on Sunday, June 19, for worship and a meal. The Session will provide salmon and strawberry shortcake. The congregation is asked to bring a side dish to share. There will be a sign-up sheet in the Fireplace Room.
